

Greg Godwin

Partner – Audit, Assurance & Advisory

Professional Background:

Greg is a partner of Moore Stephens who he has over 25 years' experience in providing auditing, assurance and advisory services.

He has been assisting not-for-profit organisations, local governments and corporations by delivering a high quality, robust and focused audit. He ensures our audit process is of the highest standard and that a quality service is delivered at all times.

Whilst conducting the audit, he develops a unique understanding and insight into client operations, which enables him to offer practical recommendations to help you deal with the financial aspects of running your organisation, and planning for the future.

This, together with the extensive experience and industry knowledge at his disposal, means he is the ideal person to consult for organisational, systems and other improvements.
